THE LORD OF LIFE

Fr. Marce Singson

The great issue of life is death. Face death we must, but as people of faith we believe that Jesus is the Lord of life and death, and by his own death and resurrection he has destroyed and restored life. It is helpful for us to note the contrast between our first reading and the Gospel. In the first reading, we will hear of prophet Elijah did indeed raise of the widow from death to life. He did so, however, not in his own name or by his own power, but rather calling upon the name of the Lord to let the life-breath return to the body of the child. In our Gospel today, Jesus stood before the dead man and spoke a command filled with power and authority: “Young man, I tell you to get up.” The young man immediately sat up and began to speak. Jesus showed himself that as the Lord of Life.

The title “Lord of Life”, may have a ring of aloofness about it. The title might suggest as if our Lord is far removed from us, far from our simple day to day living. The funeral scene (Gospel reading) upon which Jesus came was one which would induce pity from any sensitive person. The dead man who was being carried out to burial was the only son of a widowed mother. Jesus was moved to compassion, not for the boy who died, but for the mother. Jesus felt that the most difficult time for her was still in the future when, after the burial of her only son, she would have to return home to an empty house all alone. She would have no idea of what might lie ahead of her, how she would support herself. Or who would take care of her. Jesus fully grasped the meaning of the sad scene of the widowed mother. And so Jesus gave back the dead boy back to the mother, now fully alive!

Jesus is indeed the Lord of Life, but he is distant or far removed from us, or unaware of our feelings and helplessness and needs. Jesus will indeed raise us up from death to life. But even if as we move toward that great moment, he continues to treat us with love and compassion.

CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

Basic questions answered according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Let's get to know our faith.

Question: What is the task of the bishops?

Bishops have responsibility for the local Church that is entrusted to them and a share in the responsibility for the whole Church. They exercise their authority in communion with one another and for the benefit of the whole Church under the leadership of the Pope. Bishops must first of all be apostles - faithful witnesses of Jesus, who personally called them to follow him and then sent them. So they bring Christ to mankind and mankind to Christ. This happens through their preaching, the celebration of the sacraments, and their governance of the Church. As a successor of the apostles, a bishop exercises his ministry by virtue of his own apostolic authority; he is not an agent or a sort of assistant to the Pope. Yet he acts with and under the Pope.

Question: Why does Jesus want there to be Christians who live their whole lives in poverty, unmarried chastity, and obedience?

God is love. He longs for our love also. One form of loving surrender to God is to live as Jesus did - poor, chaste, and obedient. Someone who lives in this way has head, heart, and hands free for God and neighbour. In every age individual Christians let themselves be completely taken over by Jesus, so that "for the sake of the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 19:12) they give everything away for God - even such wonderful gifts as their own property, self-determination, and married love. This life according to the evangelical counsels in poverty, chastity, and obedience shows all Christians that the world is not everything. Only an encounter with the divine Bridegroom "face to face" will ultimately make a person happy.

This week at school has been our “Wellbeing Week”. Each Week 8 of the term we take time to focus on individuals, teams and the wider community. Have a look at the poster below as it show some of the fantastic activities the student have been involved in this week. Our student leaders have done a wonderful job in making resources for classes to use- they have really led the way!

Our Year One students have had a very special visit! Local fireman took time to share what they do and they let the Year One students explore their truck. There were many excited students who really loved shooting the water hose!

On Monday our Year 5 and Year 6 students participated in an Ukulele Incursion. The students were involved in a workshop, sharing their musical talents. They have only been learning this instrument for a few weeks but they are certainly gaining some wonderful skills.

During our class visits this week our Year Six student were talking about how they are learning about Jesus’ New Law. They were explaining the importance of love, grace and freedom

- Love – Loving God and our neighbour.
  - Grace – offer through our compassion, mercy, empathy, forgiveness and unconditional love.
  - and Freedom – The ability to choose between right and wrong.
- They will be celebrating their class mass on Thursday 9th June at 9.00am and I am sure they will share a little more of their discoveries. All are welcome to join us.

Have a great week      Bronwyn, Brenden and Danielle

SVDP Winter Appeal

The concept for this year's Winter Appeal is "Rethink Homelessness", with a focus on women experiencing homelessness. Mr Peter Maher SVDP Queensland CEO in launching the 2016 Winter Appeal announced these Statistics. He highlighted the misconception that women are less affected by homelessness when the reality is that the majority of Australians seeking specialists homelessness services are females. In fact 59% of people seeking help from homelessness are women and the majority of these women are over 55 years. The SVDP South Region is addressing this problem with the program "Families back on Track", a live-in program which empowers women to live a more productive life. Your donation to the Winter appeal helps this and other programs continue to help women and their children to have a more tolerable life.
