EUCCHARIST

Fr. Marce Singson

To experience the ingratitude of someone is very distressing. We have all felt its hurt and pain. When we have done a favour for someone, great or small, we expect at least a “thank you.” And we realise that we ourselves should never be remiss in showing our gratitude to others.

The Gospel scene today, is almost incredible to us. There were 10 lepers begging Jesus to heal them and Jesus out of compassion and love healed them all. How could the 9 men, after being cured by Jesus of a horrible disease, fail to return to Jesus and thank him? It is very difficult to understand. All of us would like to think that in our relationship with God we are like the Samaritan, the 10th man, who returned and gave thanks and praise to Jesus. As a matter of fact, thankfulness like the Samaritan is the very basis of what our worship of God should be here in the Holy Mass.

In the very early years of the Church. People were keenly aware of their need to give thanks to God, and they realised that the best way for them to do so was through the Mass. Their favourite word for the Mass was “EUCCHARIST,” a word that referred not only to the sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, but also to the whole action of the Mass. The term EUCCHARIST is a Greek word which means, “TO GIVE THANKS.” As the early Christians used it, however, the word had a broader meaning than simply a response of gratitude for a favour received. Among the Jewish Christians, “to give thanks to God” meant “to praise and to glorify Him.” God’s showing of his favour towards his chosen people was a sign to them of his goodness and greatness, which made him, in the minds of the people, worthy of praise and thanksgiving.

Note that the leper in today’s Gospel reading who wanted to show his thanks to Jesus came back praising God in a loud voice: “One of them, (a Samaritan), realising that he had been cured, came back to Jesus praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself on his face at the feet of Jesus and spoke his praises.” The point to remember, however, is very simple. Actions speak louder than words. We know that God is good because he has done good things, and because he is good he is worthy of the thanks and praise we are privileged to offer him in the celebration of the Eucharist.

In our prayers all who

St Edward the Confessor

Edward the Confessor was the son of King Ethelred III and his Norman wife, Emma, daughter of Duke Richard I of Normandy. He was born at Islip, England, and sent to Normandy with his mother in the year 1013 when the Danes under Sweyn and his son Canute invaded England. Canute remained in England and the year after Ethelred's death in 1016, married Emma, who had returned to England, and became King of England. Edward remained in Normandy, was brought up a Norman, and in 1042, on the death of his half-brother, Hardicanute, son of Canute and Emma, and largely through the support of the powerful Earl Godwin, he was acclaimed king of England. In 1044, he married Godwin's daughter Edith. His reign was a peaceful one characterized by his good rule and remission of odious taxes, but also by the struggle, partly caused by his natural inclination to favor the Normans, between Godwin and his Saxon supporters and the Norman barons, including Robert of Jumieges, whom Edward had brought with him when he returned to England and whom he named Archbishop of Canterbury in 1051. In the same year, Edward banished Godwin, who took refuge in Flanders but returned the following year with a fleet ready to lead a rebellion. Armed revolt was avoided when the two men met and settled their differences; among them was the Archbishop of Canterbury, which was resolved when Edward replaced Robert with Stigand, and Robert returned to Normandy. Edward's difficulties continued after Godwin's death in 1053 with Godwin's two sons: Harold who had his eye on the throne since Edward was childless, and Tostig, Earl of Northumbria. Tostig was driven from Northumbria by a revolt in 1065 and banished to Europe by Edward, who named Harold his successor. After this Edward became more interested in religious affairs and built St. Peter's Abbey at Westminster, the site of the present Abbey, where he is buried. His piety gained him the surname "the Confessor". He died in London on January 5, and he was canonized in 1161 by Pope Alexander III. His feast day is October 13.

We the family of Phil & Thelma Jones, both of whom have now passed away, would like to express our gratitude to the entire St. Edward's Parish for the love, care and companionship continuously extended to Dad & Mum ever since they arrived here in 1980.

Their life journey and faith journey together were helped by very many St. Edward's people in so many ways , and they both took pleasure in taking part and helping others as well as they were able.

That is why their phrase "We're Beautiful" has always been true!

And special thanks to Fr.Marce, Denise Love, the Parish Council and Care & Concern , as well as many others, for arranging the beautiful and fitting farewells for them both and for making welcome many friends from the past and other walks of life.

>> Thank you all so much, and God Bless!

 24th November School Christmas Carol Night
 29th November Yr 6 Graduation
 2nd December Last day of school for 2016

On the last day of the term we celebrated book week. We were amazed at the genius of costume design and then the fun had in dressing up especially as it promotes and brings alive books and their messages. Thanks to our Queen of Books, Mrs Bolland for organising this parade and working with the students in preparation for the day. Mrs Bolland works hard to bring quality literature experiences and a love of reading to our school community. As the football season has drawn to a close we now begin our summer sports festival! St Eddie's is getting into the spirit of the cricket season in 2016 is through our inclusion into this year's Catholic schools cricket competition. We will enter a team made up of Year 5 and 6 students into the knockout competition, with our first game to be played against Our Lady of Fatima in Week 3. Students are trying out for the St Edward's XI which will be finalized Week 2.

This year we have gone through a process to align all our school documentation. We took the opportunity to have the BCE design team publish our school vision and mission statement. It's great to keep our vision and mission in front of us as our guide for what and why we do what we do. As the term progresses we look forward to sharing the journey and we hope you have a wonderful week. Bronwyn, Brendan and Danielle

The month of October is the month of the Rosary, one of the great community/family prayers of the Catholic church. I have fond childhood memories of gathering as a family each evening to recite the rosary. Unfortunately this custom is rapidly dying out in my homeland. It is a wonderful prayer that tells the story of the new Testament. Through the beads we follow the life of Mary and Jesus. We follow Mary from the day the Archangel Gabriel came to ask her to become the mother of Christ to the day she was crowned Queen of Heaven. We follow Jesus from the moment the Holy Spirit came down to Mary, through his childhood, his public life, his cruel death on the cross, the joy of Easter when he rose from the dead to the day he ascended to Heaven in glory. In the traditional rosary there are fifteen mysteries, however I recently discovered that in October 2002 Pope John Paul II added the "Mysteries of Light". These are: Christ's Baptism; Christ's revelation at the marriage of Cana; Christ's Proclamation of the Kingdom of God and call to conversion; Christ's Transfiguration; and Christ's Institution of the Eucharist. Let us pray the rosary this month for world peace.

We can use your postage stamps from your mail

The Salesian Missions use the old stamps that are passed on to them to raise funds. This goes towards Salesian Education and relief work in developing nations. Yes, the Post man does not have to stop by often, but on that rare occasion he does, and on that envelope, if there is a stamp, can you please pass this on to us, instead of throwing it in the bin? A small gesture, lending a big helping hand. We have placed a collection box for stamps in the parish office.
