DIVISION AND PEACE

Fr. Marce Singson

We cannot dispute the fact that Jesus was a peacemaker. He proclaimed peace, prayed for it and counselled others to pursue it. He called the peacemakers: “blessed,” and promised them the Kingdom of God. Contrary to this congenial image, we hear in today’s Gospel reading that Jesus said: “I come to cast fire upon the earth.” And he adds: “Do not think that I have come to bring peace...but division.” He declares that because of him, people and families will be divided. How do we reconcile these two contradictory images?

The Letter to the Hebrews pictures Jesus as a Priest, Prophet and King.

As King, he calls for order and peace that the Kingdom may be strong.

As Priest, he wants to unify people in faith and worship and establish harmony in the community.

The role of Prophet, however, causes him to speak a different language – for a prophet is on the cutting edge of society, expressing views which people do not want to hear! Therefore as Priest and King, Jesus is a peacemaker; but as Prophet he causes division.

The aim of a genuine prophet is to achieve peace. The person who never objects or criticises is less a peacemaker than the outspoken critic who is sincerely trying to improve the world. If we ignore a curable ill in our Church, family or society, we are not acting as Christians. It sounds strange to say but it takes a brave person to do it, but sometimes we have to be “troublemakers” in order to heal, reform and restore peace.

Even though it was a shorter week with the Ekka holiday there was still a lot on! Olympic fever is in the air at St Eddie's and the quest for gold has been a hot topic of conversation within the school grounds this week. It was a joy to see potential future Olympians relish the opportunity to take part in the P-2 Athletics carnival. The weather was magical and many parents joined in this great day. It was a pleasure to watch our Year 6 students lead the group activities of tug of war, high jump, sprints, sack races, relays, hurdles and many more.

There were a few excursions this week. Our Year 5 students have been learning about the people and events that have brought change to the Australian colony. They visited the 'Eureka-Gold Rush' at the back of Beenleigh. They were faced with a scenario of diggers arriving at the goldfields to try to find their fortune. It was a great interactive and authentic learning experience for the children.

Our Prep students have been learning about animals and walked to the Daisy Hill Koala Centre to learn more about koalas. This was a great walk and there were many tired little and big legs! Our Year 2 students have been learning about past and present transport and communication. They have been amazed by some of the artefacts that we know so well yet were so new to them- I am sure you all remember dial up telephone, typewriter.....!! They have a visit from "Living History" where they had an opportunity to see, hear and explore more changes in transport and communication.

Just some updates.... The fete was a huge success raising over $20,000.. Our students in the Quota Eisteddfod – were our gold winning choir!

We hope you have a great week

Our parish will conduct the Catholic Mission Church Appeal this weekend

August 13-14, 2016

When Jesus talks in the opening of this weekend's Gospel, about bringing "fire to the earth", we can easily mistake His promise as a threat. But consider all the ways fire brings life. Flames remove dross, crack open seeds and lead to regrowth in vegetation. In our relationships, we speak of the fire in our heart, our loins, our thoughts...so perhaps it's not so much as a threat, as a yearning to see people ablaze with a passion for their relationship with God. It is this passion that drives missionaries, like Sr Eulie, in countries where God is little known or where life circumstances need to be reshaped by the blaze of the Gospel. Your contributions, through the Catholic Mission appeal campaign, will help light fires in more than 160 countries around the world, including Cambodia. In anticipation of your generosity, we thank you!

Our world today is not a happy one. The increased crime, violence and terrorism tend to create fear in many of us, a fear which prevents us from enjoying and celebrating the gift of life. The Current Olympic games is demonstrating that the forces that unite us are greater than the forces that divide us. Let us think positively and work to bring about the dream of the poet Langston Hughes.

I Dream A World
I dream a world where man
No other man will scorn,
Where love will bless the earth
And peace its paths adorn
I dream a world where all
Will know sweet freedom’s way.
Where greed no longer saps the soul
Nor avarice blights our day.
A world I dream where black or white
Whatever race you be,
Will share the bounties of the earth
And every man is free
Where wretchedness will hang its head
And joy, like a pearl,
Attend the needs of all mankind.
Of such I dream, my world.

The Salesian Missions use the old stamps that are passed on to them to raise funds. This goes towards Salesian Education and relief work in developing nations. Yes, the Post man does not have to stop by often, but on that rare occasion he does, and on that envelope, if there is a stamp, can you please pass this on to us, instead of throwing it in the bin? A small gesture, lending a big helping hand. We have placed a collection box for stamps in the parish office.

National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children’s Day (Children’s Day) was celebrated at Play Sessions to recognise the strengths and culture of their children. The day is an opportunity to show support for Aboriginal children, as well as learn about the crucial impact that community, culture and family play in the life of every Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander child. This year’s theme is My Country, Our Country, We All Belong. It is about helping children to feel connected and proud in culture, to ensure they feel like they belong.

If you would like more information about our service, including becoming an Educator or Childcare enquiries please contact the office on: 3208 0463.

Children's Liturgy takes place during the Sunday 8.30am Mass. Upcoming Dates are:
August 14th & 28th; September 11th; October 16th & 30th; November 13th & 27th; December 4th.
