TOUGH TIMES

by Fr. Marce Singson

• FOOTPRINTS •

He spoke,
"My Precious
Child,
I Love You
and would never leave you...
When you saw only one set
of footprints,
that was when

...I Carried You."
screaming and drinking and make up for it in a couple of years, but I'm trying very hard." It was a tough times for Sid.

Sid Caesar's recovery from alcoholism has renewed his life. Before, he was destroying his life and his family with drinking and drugs. Now, he reconstructing his life and his relationship with his wife and his children. Sid Caesar's experiences illustrates today's liturgical readings from the Book of Daniel and from the Gospel of St. Mark. Both readings speak about the end of time. Both readings are telling us that no matter how badly things are going, God will somehow intervene in our history to complete his victory; someday our dead will rise to live forever; one day our heroes will shine like stars; then we will see the Son of Man coming in a clouds with great power and glory.

When will this end time of life's definitive triumph over death come? No one knows. But in the meantime, we can anticipate this final triumph by intermediate ones, as Sid Caesar's victory shows. We may still have some tough times to go through – like death striking our family, accidents happening, losing our job or being let down by members of our families or friends. But because Christ has already won the victory for us, we will not let these tough times defeat us. Instead, we will turn tough times around into triumphs of some kind like entering new relationships, taking on new tasks or developing new outlooks in life. We must not lose hope, then, if tough times come upon us or even if we make 20 year mistakes in life, for the Lord our God promises to stay with us even in our tough times.

Tough times don't last. Tough people do!

CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

Basic questions answered according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Let's get to know our faith.

Question: Why is Jesus the BEST example? // Why are all men equal?

Why is Jesus the greatest example in the world?

Jesus Christ is unique because he shows us not only God's true nature but also the true ideal of man.

Jesus was more than an ideal man. Even seemingly ideal men are sinners. That is why no man can be the measure of humanity. Jesus, however, was without sin. We cannot know what it means to be a man, and what makes man infinitely loveable in the truest sense of the word, except in Jesus Christ, who "in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sinning" (Heb 4:15). Jesus, the Son of God, is the authentic, true man. In him we recognize how God willed man to be.

In what does the equality of all men consist?

All men are equal inasmuch as they have the same origin in the one creative love of God. All men have their Saviour in Jesus Christ. All men are destined to find their happiness and their eternal blessedness in God.

Hence all men are brothers and sisters. Christians should practice solidarity not only with other Christians but with everyone and forcefully oppose racist, sexist, and economic divisions in the one human family. (YOUCAT questions 60-61)

Question: What is the Soul? Where does Man get it?'

What is the soul?

The soul is what makes every individual person a man: his spiritual life-principle and inmost being. The soul causes the material body to be a living human body. Through his soul, man is a creature who can say "I" and stand before God as an irreplaceable individual.

Men are bodily and spiritual creatures. A man's spirit is more than a function of his body and cannot be explained in terms of man's material composition. Reason tells us that there must be a spiritual principle that is united with the body but not identical to it. We call it the "soul". Although the soul's existence cannot be "proved" scientifically, man cannot be understood as a spiritual or intellectual being without accepting this spiritual principle that transcends matter.

From where does man get his soul?

The human soul is created directly by God and is not "produced" by the parents.

Man's soul cannot be the product of an evolutionary development out of matter or the result of a generative union of the father and mother. With every man, a unique, spiritual person comes into the world; the Church expresses this mystery by saying that God gives him a soul, which cannot die; even if the person loses his body in death, he will find it again in the resurrection. To say, "I have a soul", means that God created me not only as a creature but as a person and has called me to a never-ending relationship with him. (YOUCAT questions 62-63)

SCHOOL NEWS

There is lots of activity with only three weeks left before the end of our school year! On Thursday evening we held our Prep Information session for parents. Friday morning we welcomed our very excited 2016 Preps cohort with an orientation program. They were treated to a special performance, they explored the school and had some time in the classrooms to become familiar with the surroundings that will become theirs next year. We really look forward to them joining us next year.

Our Captain Vinnies have made a return! Their mission is to promote and help gather items to support the St Vincent de Paul Christmas Hamper appeal. Outreach is an important component in our school life and it allows the children an opportunity to continue to live our theme this year- Practise Peace, Change our World.

Our Prep had an incursion from Larrikin Puppets where they had the chance to listen to songs and jokes. They loved the exercises lessons, promoting an active and healthy lifestyle. We also had our junior year students participate in rugby skill development run by National Rugby League Limited. Preparations continue for our Christmas Concert- the Christmas Star on Thursday the 26th November. You are more than welcome to join us on the netball courts at 7.00pm.

We hope you have a great week John, Bronwyn and Danielle
