THE OTHER CHRISTS

Fr. Marce Singson

Hospitality has been taken over by various commercial interests. Making one feel at home with no surprises, can sell hotel rooms. No self-respecting institution would be caught without a “hospitality centre” for visitors. Hospitality is an essential aspect of the Christian story. The call to be hospitable is part of the call to discipleship in following Christ. Our readings in this Holy Mass highlights a crucial aspect of hospitality.

The first reading presents Abraham and Sarah extending hospitality to three men (in reality God and two angels) who visited the couple. The day was hot. Abraham provides water for the customary foot-washing for guests. Shade and rest from the heat are extended. Sarah prepares food for the guests and makes them feel at home. Abraham and Sarah did not know that it was their God and His angels who visited them. The couple’s relationship with God makes them more sensitive to the needs of others. So you see, faith draws us out of ourselves and allows us to meet the needs of others. Faith breaks the chains of self-absorption and self-pity. The hospitality of Abraham and Sarah is met by the generosity of God. God informs them that within a year they will be blessed with a son. Hospitality brings forth new life.

In the Gospel today, we hear Jesus visits his family friends in Bethany: Martha, Mary and Lazarus. Mary was sitting and listening to Jesus, whereas Martha was busy cooking in the kitchen. St. Luke indicates that doing hospitable things is necessary but not sufficient. We too can do hospitable things. We can be like Martha, busy about many things, without really being with the guest. We can find ourselves caught up with details and losing sight of the goal – welcoming the guest as a loved one. In so doing, we can become resentful and bitter because others are not doing their share of the work.

In the Rule of St. Benedict (Chapter 53), St. Benedict said:

Let all guests who arrive be received like Christ, for He is going to say, ‘I came as a guest, and you received Me’ (Matt. 25:35). And to all let due honour be shown, especially to the domestics of the faith and to pilgrims. Hence, we are hospitable to others because they are the other Christs. Abraham and Sarah didn’t know that it was God and His two angels who visited them. The couple thought they were just pilgrims which was very common at that time. Mary and Martha welcomed Jesus as their guest. We cannot, however, see the image of Christ in others if we are too caught up with many things. Hospitality is both and awareness of the real needs of others and of the hidden presence of Christ.

Parish Up Date

On Saturday 9th July, members of the St Edwards Parish Pastoral Council attended the Archdiocese Pastoral Council Commissioning Mass and Mercy Pilgrimage Walk at St Stephen's Cathedral.

This celebration commenced with a morning tea, which enabled all parishes to come together as one body.

Archbishop Mark Coleridge was the celebrant for this joyous celebration.

The Cathedral was overflowing with Parish Pastoral Council members from the Brisbane deaneries, parish clergy, families and friends. God's presence was surely felt by everyone and it was a humbling experience to hear the word of the lord within the Cathedral.

As the Pastoral Council for St Edwards, we were enriched and strengthen, as well as challenged in our faith, to go out and be humble servants and spread the good news to everyone!

St Edwards was privileged to be called to present the First Reading (Isaiah6:1) by Denise Love and Steven Richardson led the cathedral in the Prayers of Faithful.

It is great to be back at school! Staff and students are energised and eager for the term ahead. We welcome the following staff from the beginning of Term 3
Ms Molly Morris will be teaching Year 4 Red
Mrs Vickie Meldon will be teaching Technology to Yrs. P- 4

The energy and excitement is really building to our upcoming fete! Thanks to the many parents in our community that are pulling the day together! The organisation has had really positive vibes and the day promises to be a fantastic one. The funds raised will go towards refurbishing our school library. A highlight at present is the beautiful class artwork that will be for auction on the day. It will be a wonderful day and please come and join in the fun.

This term the learning behaviour we will focus on is "Creative". Students need to use creative skills in all learning areas at school and in their lives beyond school. At St Edward's we recognise students need to develop capability in creative thinking as they learn to generate and evaluate knowledge, clarify concepts and ideas, seek possibilities, consider alternatives and solve problems. We look forward to sharing how we are showing creativity in our learning this term.

Next week on Thursday 21st July at 9.00am our Year 3 students are celebrating mass with Fr Marce. All are welcome.

Have a great week
Bronwyn, Brendan and Danielle

Homelessness is a worldwide social problem and governments and charitable organisation struggle to find solutions to this problem. To empathise with the homeless we need to reflect on the plight of their circumstance. It is a state of having no home or fixed abode, living on the streets, in an alleyway, in a park or under a bridge. Homelessness can strike any one through loss of employment, natural disaster, through sickness/death of the provider, high rent or insufficient income. Of the 105,000 homeless people in Australia, half of these are under 24 years and 10,000 are children. These people are trapped in this condition and no matter how hard they try, the majority are unable to change their circumstances.

One of the Good Works of SVDP is working towards providing accommodation for the homeless. It is grappling with the issue as there is no one solution. A number of models are currently in use and others are being initiated from the funds raised in the recent Vinnies Community Sleep outs and Vinnies CEO Sleep outs at Brisbane, Gold Coast and Townsville. The Brisbane one raised over $600,000 and Gold Coast raised 441,000. Townsville is still to have theirs.

Let us not judge by what they are but who they are.

We can use your postage stamps from your mail

The Salesian Missions use the old stamps that are passed on to them to raise funds. This goes towards Salesian Education and relief work in developing nations. Yes, the Post man does not have to stop by often, but on that rare occasion he does, and on that envelope, if there is a stamp, can you please pass this on to us, instead of throwing it in the bin? A small gesture, lending a big helping hand. We have placed a collection box for stamps in the parish office.

We are currently setting up new 'Invitation to Play' resource boxes for Educators to use with the children in care. They are proving to be very popular!!

If you would like more information about our service, including becoming an Educator or Childcare enquiries please contact the office on: 3208 0463.

Children's Liturgy takes place during the Sunday 8.30am Mass. Upcoming Dates are:
July 17th & 31st; August 14th & 28th;
 September 11th; October 16th & 30th;
 November 13th & 27th; December 4th.
