Sunday of the Resurrection - Year B/2

We greet this day with thanksgiving and praise. Christ our hope is risen and we want to announce it by our life and our joy. This is how we see Peter in the First Reading. He is addressing Cornelius and his household, re-counting Jesus's life and death, and how, as a witness to it, Peter has been ordered to proclaim Christ's resurrection to his people.

St Paul, in his letter to the Corinthians (Second Reading), encourages us with the practical example of getting rid of the old yeast, to be completely renewed through Christ, in sincerity and truth. The Psalm is a joyful Easter song celebrating Christ's triumph. It will be a refrain for us throughout the season.

In the Gospel, after Mary of Magdala finds the stone rolled away from the tomb, she runs to tell Peter and John. By seeing the empty tomb and the discarded cloths, they slowly come to realise that Jesus has truly risen. Let us pray that we, too, will witness to the resurrection in our lives.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION:

CHRIST, OUR HOPE, IS RISEN! ALLELUIA

O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life.

YOUNG people need to understand how much Christ loves them unconditionally and how much the church needs their voices and presence, Pope Francis said. "Dear young people, you are the living hope of a Church on the move. For this reason, I thank you for your presence and for your contribution to the life of the Body of Christ," the Pope told the world's young people in a written message.

The Pope's message was released on March 25 to mark the fifth anniversary of his apostolic exhortation Christus Vivit (Christ is Alive), published in 2019 and reflecting on the 2018 Synod of Bishops on young people, the faith and vocational discernment.

Pope Francis said he wanted to reach out again to young people with a message that could be "a source of renewed hope for you."

"In today's world, marked by so many conflicts and so much suffering, I suspect that many of you feel disheartened. So together with you, I would like to set out from the proclamation that is the basis of our hope and that of all humanity: 'Christ is alive!'" he wrote, and "he loves you with an infinite love."

"How greatly I want this proclamation to reach every one of you, for you to accept it as living and true in your own lives, and feel the desire to share it with your friends."

Pope Francis said April 14 would mark the 40th anniversary of the first great gathering of young people that, during St John Paul II's Holy Year of the Redemption, "was the seed of the future World Youth Days".

Pope Francis recalled his first World Youth Day as Pope in Rio de Janeiro in 2013, and how "I urged you to make your voices heard! 'Hagan lio!' Make a mess!"
