All Saints Day Sunday (Year B)

31st October - 1st November

ORDINARY PEOPLE ARE SAINTS TOO

by Fr. Marce Singson

A man died at the age of sixty two. He had been a loving husband, and a devoted father to four sons and a daughter. For most of his adult life. He worked as a clothing salesman. He tried to live a good life and to do what believed was right. When he died, he left behind him the memory of a warm, friendly human being. Today is his feast day!

A woman died at the age of seventy four. She had been a good wife and a loving mother. Most of her time was spent at home. Taking care of her husband and six children. Her life was so simple and happy. Her greatest sorrow was to see her youngest daughter leave the Church, marry a much older man, and then end her marriage in divorce after seven years in married life. The mother suffered so much because of her rebellious daughter. Today is her feast day!

A three year old boy was killed near his home when in the twilight, a car struck him down. Today is his feast day!

Throughout the year, we celebrate feast days in honour of the saints. They are the “name” saints; the “big” saints like St. Joseph, the Apostles, etc. Today we celebrate the unnamed saints, the little/ordinary saints. They are the people who quietly tried to lead good, Christian lives, and who in God’s plan never had the occasion to do anything really spectacular or extraordinary. They were the people our Lord referred to in today’s gospel reading: “Blessed are the poor in spirit, the sorrowing, the lowly, who hunger for justice, the merciful, etc.

Today in this holy Mass, we should praise and thank God for the ordinary saints: that is, those members of our own families or relatives and friends who had passed away and had lived a good Christian way of life. Today is their feast day!

And we should pray to God that one day, we may be among them in heaven. Then this feast, the solemnity of all Saints, will be our feast day, too!

For privacy reasons names of sick or recently deceased in these column can only accepted if requested by the sick or their family members

This weekend as we celebrate the feast of All Saints and remember the Souls in Purgatory we are reminded that Christmas is just round the corner. This is a busy time for the SVDP Daisy Hill Conference as prepare Christmas hampers for the families we have visited during the year. This year we have visited and helped over 105 families to date. Approximately 20 of these are repeat visits. This leaves about 80 families that we would like to share with us in celebrating the birth of our Saviour. We NEED your help in providing Christmas foods for the hampers. For the month of November we are having a food drive. A Giving Tree will be set up at the back of the church. It will have red leaves on it and we ask you to take one or more and bring the item written on it and place it in the box near the tree. Monetary donations can be placed in the poor box or you can give a Christmas voucher.

CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

Basic questions answered according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Let's get to know our faith.

Question: Is Man Special? // How should we treat other Creatures?

Does man have a special place in creation?

Yes. Man is the summit of creation, because God created him in his image (Gen 1:27).

The creation of man is clearly distinguished from the creation of other living things. Man is a person, which means that through his understanding and will he can decide for or against love.

How should man treat animals and other fellow creatures?

Man should honour the Creator in other creatures and treat them carefully and responsibly. Man, animals, and plants have the same Creator who called them into being out of love. Therefore a love of animals is profoundly human.

Although man is allowed to use and to eat plants and animals, he is nevertheless not allowed to torture animals or to keep them in inhumane conditions. That contradicts the dignity of creation just as much as exploiting the earth thoughtlessly out of greed. (YOUCAT questions 56-57)

Question: How Are We Unique?

What does it mean to say that man was created in God's image?

Unlike inanimate objects, plants, and animals, man is a person endowed with a spirit. This characteristic unites him with God more than with his visible fellow creatures.

Man is not a something but rather a someone. Just as we say about God that he is person, so too we say this about man. Man can think beyond his immediate horizon and measure the whole breadth of being; he can even know himself with critical objectivity and work to improve himself; he can perceive others as persons, understand them in their dignity, and love them. Of all the visible creatures, man alone is "able to know and love his creator" (Second Vatican Council, Gaudium et spes [GS] 12, 3). Man is destined to live with him in friendship (Jn 15:15). (YOUCAT question 58)

Question: Why did God make man?

Why did God make man?

God made everything for man. Man, however, who is "the only creature on earth that God has willed for its own sake" (GS 24, 3), was created in order to be blessed. This happens when he knows, loves, and serves God and lives in gratitude toward his Creator.

Gratitude is love that has been acknowledged. Someone who is grateful turns freely to the giver of the good and enters into a new, deeper relationship with him. God wishes us to acknowledge his love and even now to live our whole life in relation with him. This relationship lasts forever. (YOUCAT question 59)

On Friday we marked and celebrated World

SCHOOL NEWS

Teachers' Day. It is celebrated in over one hundred countries; World Teachers' Day acknowledges the efforts of teachers in an increasingly complex, multicultural and technological society. We started the day with a staff breakfast and a special Prep White assembly. We recognise and thank all of our staff members who work so hard to make that difference in the lives of St Edward's children!

Our Year One students are learning about the different roles people have in our local St Edward's Parish. Last Friday Fr Marce visited the Year One classes to talk about the volunteers who assist him in the St Edward's Parish and his experience as a priest. The children had lots of questions and thoroughly enjoyed his visit. They love and appreciate the opportunity to have Fr Marce share his expertise and stories.

Have a great week

All Saints Day Prayers for the Saints

November 1

Dear Father,

You have given the saints in Heaven eternal happiness and they now live in the fullness of Your glory. Because of their holy love for You, they also care about me and my family, my friend, my church, and my neighbours. Thank You for the gift of their friendship and the witness of their holy lives. I ask our patron saints and every saint who has become especially dear to me to intercede for us. I ask them to help us journey safely on the narrow path that leads to Heaven. O Lord, give us their protection. Grant us their assistance in overcoming temptation and gaining the fullness of life with You.

Amen
