13th Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year A-1

Follow in my footsteps

The readings this week focus on hospitality and welcome, as well as the rewards we receive when we welcome others ourselves.

In the First Reading, Elisha, a ‘holy man of God’, is regularly offered bed and board. As a result he decides to reward his hosts with a much longed-for son and heir. The Psalm is a song of praise to the Lord’s love and mercy. St Paul stresses to the Romans that in Baptism, we die to our old selves, and are reborn to a new life with Christ. (Second Reading)

In the Gospel, Jesus continues to instruct his disciples. Following him will not always be easy, but it will have its own rewards or blessings. Whether one welcomes a prophet, a holy person or the smallest ‘little one’, a good deed, even the simplest cup of water, will not go unnoticed. In welcoming others, we welcome Jesus himself.

This week we might want to reflect on the way each one of us, and society at large, welcomes those who must leave their own land for a variety of reasons. Perhaps we can ask for the grace of realising that ‘whatsoever we do to the least of our brothers and sisters, that we do unto him’ (words adapted from the hymn by Willard F Jabusch).

GOSPEL Matthew 10: 37–42 REFLECTION

How do I feel as I come to pray today? Maybe I’ve looked forward to this quiet time with the Lord, or am I simply stopping to pray out of habit? Whatever my reason, I try to shut out the outside world in the way that seems to work best for me. Perhaps I close my eyes for a few moments and then gently open them, before reading the Gospel text several times.

What words challenge me? I pause and reflect. Perhaps my mind drifts towards my family, my friends, my community. How much do I love them? How does my love for them compare with my love for the Lord? To what extent do I see Jesus through them as I make them welcome?

The Lord encourages me to take up my cross and follow in his footsteps. I ponder. What is my cross at the moment? What do I do to follow his footsteps? In trust, I turn to the Lord and tell him in my own words how I feel just now.

Maybe I bring to mind the people in my life whom I consider to be prophets or holy persons. As I recall their influence on me, I give thanks for them. With hindsight, they may have done very little, yet their presence, guidance or words was perhaps really significant. Before concluding my prayer, I ask the Lord to help me be such a person for others. In gratitude for his presence with me today, I say Glory be . . . Courtesy of St Bueno’s Outreach in the Diocese of Wrexham, UK

The 2023 theme for NAIDOC Week
(2 – 9 July) is "For Our Elders".

Across every generation, First Nations Elders have played, and continue to play, an important role and hold a prominent place in communities and families.

They are cultural knowledge holders, trailblazers, nurturers, advocates, teachers, survivors, leaders, hard workers and loved ones.

All Australians can draw strength from their guidance, through generations of advocacy and activism, and their knowledge and experience in everything from land management, cultural knowledge to justice and human rights. This enriches us all.

First Nations communities use this week to pay their respects to the Elders lost, and to those who continue fighting for justice and dignity. It is also a time to celebrate culture, spirituality and community.

Local NAIDOC week events are held across the country. To find your local event please visit <https://www.aidoc.org.au/local-events/local-aidoc-week-events>

ARCHBISHOP MARK COLERIDGE NAIDOC SUNDAY 2023 MESSAGE

Ahead of NAIDOC Week (July 2-9), and especially on the first Sunday in July, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church. As we approach the Indigenous Voice to Parliament, it has never been more important for Catholics to come together and listen to Australia's First Peoples.
Archbishop Mark has pre-recorded a message in which he once again states his endorsement of the Uluru Statement from the Heart. "My prayer is that we can journey together in a respectful and peaceful spirit, so that the whole nation can become stronger as a result of this process of reconciliation." Watch the message in full context by scanning the QR Code.

We would like to send our heartfelt thanks to the Care & Concern group and parishioners who provided an absolutely beautiful afternoon tea at Brian's funeral service on Friday 23rd June. With much love, Sue, Bridget, Stephanie & Martin McEnery and our families xx
