

Welcome to St Edward the Confessor Parish

Established 1978

05th—06th October 2019

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Habakkuk 1:2-3, 2:2-4; 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14, Luke 17:5-9

Next Week: 2 Kings 5:14-17; 2 Timothy 2:8-13; Luke 17:11-19

God's in Charge ... You're Free!

It's very predictable. Often when I talk with a group of high school students, I ask who would like more freedom from parents. Most hands shoot up.

It's normal for young people to thirst for freedom, just like it's normal for parents to get nervous about granting it. But this week's Gospel is all about freedom – the freedom that comes when you realise God's in charge and you're not.

Our culture is pretty competitive. Who will get the best grades? Who will win the game? Who will look the best? It's easy for life to become nothing but one long final exam where success means everything. And that's when life becomes pretty meaningless. Jesus offers us so much by reminding us that we're God's servants.

But how's that better? After all, who wants to be a servant when they grow up?

It's better because it frees us. God's in charge. We can't solve the world's problems. That's God's job. So don't worry about being a successful Christian. God asks you only to faithfully do what you can, remembering that God's love doesn't depend on your success.

We're free. We're free to take risks for our faith because we don't need to worry about success. A lot of young people have inspired me by that willingness. "What have I got to lose?" they've said as they've signed up for service trips or joined youth groups. And the more you risk things for God, the Master, the more you'll get what the Apostles wanted in this week's Gospel: more faith. Risking for faith is like lifting weights – it builds spiritual muscle.

What a gift God has given us by taking charge. In a world where you might feel responsible for so much, enjoy the freedom that comes from being God's servant.

Does your fear of failure ever stop you from taking risks for your faith?

With courage
you will dare to take risks,
have the strength
to be compassionate, and the wisdom
to be humble.

Courage is the foundation of integrity.

PARISH UPDATE

Multicultural Mass Mass of All Nations Feast of St Edward the Confessor Sunday 20th October at the 8.30am Mass

We invite all who attend to wear traditional clothing that is representative of their culture.

The invitation to be part of our Parish Celebration is extended to all members of our Parish and the wider community. Bring along your friends and others you might like to invite.

There will be sharing at the end of Mass and so we would appreciate that you bring a signature dish of your culture for sharing with those who attend.

We are still looking for flag bearers to be part of the flag procession.
If your country has no flag bearer and you would like to carry the flag of your country, there will be a representative of the Parish Pastoral Council at the back of the church after Mass to take your name.

First Holy Communion – Sunday 13th October at 10.45am

Parishioners could you please keep the children and their families in your prayers as the candidates prepare to receive Jesus for the first time.

Thank you

The Sacramental Team

I will be on annual leave from Monday 07.10.2019 until morning of 17.10.2019. Monsignor John Butler will celebrate the First Holy Communion on 13th October and week end Masses. During this time there will be NO week day Masses.

Thank you

Bequests to St. Edwards Parish

The writing of a Will can be a very gratifying knowing that you have looked after your loved ones with your wishes. We would like to invite you to consider making a bequest in your Will to help your Parish with the needs for future projects. Any bequests no matter how big or small would be gratefully received and applied to the growth of our community. Thank you.

We can use your postage stamps from your mail

The Salesian Missions use the old stamps that are passed on to them to raise funds. These go towards Salesian Education and relief work in developing nations. Yes the Postman does not have to stop by often, but on that rare occasion he does and on that envelope, if there is a stamp, can you please pass this onto us? We have placed a collection box for stamps in the parish office. Thank you.

If you are new to the Parish or are visiting, Welcome!

We are glad you have come to share Eucharist with us today. Please leave your details with the parish office on 3299 2000 so that our Parish Priest and a member of our Parish Pastoral Council can reach out to you with a formal welcome. Thank you

Children's Liturgy

Children's Liturgy takes place every second Sunday during the 8.30am Mass. We have a break during School holidays. Next Liturgy is 13th October 2019.
