27th Sunday in Ordinary Time —Year A/1

The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel

The image of the people of God as a vineyard is familiar in the Scriptures. We can rejoice in seeing the Church as the vineyard of the Lord, but we also need to respond to God's gifts and use them well. In Isaiah's 'Song of the Vineyard', God has made the people of Israel his vineyard (First Reading). He lovingly cares for it, but sadly the people fail to respond.

The Psalm picks up the same theme. It is an appeal to God to turn again and visit the vine he has planted. The vineyard appears in the Gospel too, but here the tenants are reproached. Not only are they not profitable, but they murder the owner's son.

St Paul writes that the peace of God is ours if we can only trust in him (Second Reading). We are to pursue all that is good and pure, and produce the fruit worthy of the Lord. This week, may we be full of thanksgiving for all that we have received, and always turn to the Lord in prayer.

GOSPEL Matthew 21: 33–43 REFLECTION

As I prepare to pray, I consciously take the time to relax my body and quiet my mind. I breathe gently and place myself in God's loving presence. I remain in this stillness for some time. I then read the text slowly, a couple of times. What strikes me in this parable? Perhaps I can ponder on God's generous care for his vineyard, and his patience with his tenants, despite their actions. In what ways might I have experienced something like this?

The owner leases the vineyard to new tenants. How can I see myself in the role of owner? How is my attitude different from that of the chief priests and elders? I speak to the Lord of my thoughts and feelings about this parable. Maybe I do so in gratitude for God's gifts: those of family and friends, of community, of the wonders of creation . . . What fruits can I myself offer? I end my prayer with a Glory be . . .

Did You Know?

St Edward the Confessor

Armed revolt was avoided when the two men met and settled their differences; among them was the Archbishop of Canterbury, which was resolved when Edward replaced Robert with Stigand, and Robert returned to Normandy. Edward's difficulties continued after Godwin's death in 1053 with Godwin's two sons: Harold who had his eye on the throne since Edward was childless, and Tostig, Earl of Northumbria. Tostig was driven from Northumbria by a revolt in 1065 and banished to Europe by Edward, who named Harold his successor. After this Edward became more interested in religious affairs and built St. Peter's Abbey at Westminster, the site of the present Abbey, where he is buried. His piety gained him the surname "the Confessor". He died in London on January 5, and he was canonized in 1161 by Pope Alexander III.

His feast day is October 13.

50th plus Wedding Anniversary Blessing Mass

Last Saturday 3 couples from our parish who celebrated 50 years and over wedding anniversaries this year attended the special blessing Mass held at St Stephen's Cathedral celebrated by Archbishop Mark Coleridge. The ceremony was quite moving and very special. It was also lovely to see past and present parishioners in attendance to support married couples.
