Today we begin our Lenten journey, and our Gospel readings speaks about Jesus who was tempted by Satan three times in the desert.

Sometimes we hunger for attention, acceptance, approval. Each of us, I suspect, has known the hole and emptiness of restlessness, boredom, and that sense that we are going nowhere and life has no meaning. No, we haven't turned a stone into a piece of bread but we've likely filled our emptiness and fed our hunger with something less than nutritious and life-giving, something other than what we know God would want for us. We only wanted a little something to get us by, fill the hole, and satisfy the hunger. But it doesn't. It never does. It only gets us to the next fix.

Other times we know better but we don't do better. We take the easy way out. We do less than we really want to do. We take a shortcut through life. It's easy to justify. Everyone does it. No one got hurt. I deserve it. The ends justify the means. No one knew.

Then there are the times we negotiate with God. Have you ever thought or perhaps prayed, "If you really love me, if you are the God I want you to be then catch me, give me, do for me?"

Jesus' temptations in the wilderness are not all that different than our temptations. The wilderness is not so much a place as a situation. Like Jesus we are sometimes left alone with our thoughts. Who am I? What is my life about? How will I get through this? In the wilderness there will always be a voice that is quick to offer an answer, an idea, a way. Jesus was tempted in every way as are we.

The difference is that Jesus said, "No," and sometimes we've said, "Ok. Yes, I'll do it." In that moment are we less beloved of God? Are we somehow less God's son or daughter? Are we a failure? Turn the questions around. If we had said, "No," would we be more beloved? More God's child? Would we have passed and be a spiritual success?

Youth United - GAMES and PIZZA night and recap

Well, on Friday 1 March we had our first Youth United event for this year, and boy, were we impressed - We had 47 youth join us for the evening!

Pizza were delivered and it was a surprisingly civilised affair Youth then spontaneously moved back indoors to the awesome St Edwards School hall for round 2 of games. Some preferred more sedate board games and handball while our older tougher youth challenged each other with some very energetic basketball.

We hope that you all had as much fun as it looked like you did!

So, to make sure YOU don't miss out Make sure you watch out for our St Edwards Youth United next events and photos on:

Web: youthunited.life

AND... to link with other parishes and Catholic youth events that are happening in-between our events check out:

Evangelisationbrisbane.org.au . Then click on "What's on". Then check out "Catholic Collective "

Special Thanks to:

- Parents for the support completing out registration forms and money donations. A big thank you to parents offered to help supervise on the night. Thanks to the adults that stayed behind for supervision, support and security.
 - St Edwards School for their support and the use of their hall.
 - Fr Marce, and office staff for assisting us with admin, advertising and organisation.
 - Thank you to the family that donated Mousetrap and a puzzle.
 - And all the youth leaders for their commitment and enthusiasm.
- Until the next event..... keep playing and keep praying !

Why do the Stations of the Cross?

The most important reason for reviving the practice of making the Stations of the Cross is that it is a powerful way to contemplate, and enter into, the mystery of Jesus' gift of himself to us. It takes the reflection on the passion out of my head, and makes it an imaginative exercise. It involves my senses, my experience and my emotions. To the extent I come to experience the love of Jesus for me, to that extent the gratitude I feel will be deep. Deep gratitude leads to real generosity and a desire to love as I have been loved. First, just a note about the history of the stations:

The History:

From the earliest of days, followers of Jesus told the story of his passion, death and resurrection. When pilgrims came to see Jerusalem, they were anxious to see the sites where Jesus was. These sites become important holy connections with Jesus. Eventually, following in the footsteps of the Lord, along the way of the cross, became a part of the pilgrimage visit. The stations, as we know them today, came about when it was no longer easy or even possible to visit the holy sites. In the 1500's, villages all over Europe started creating "replicas" of the way of the cross, with small shrines commemorating the places along the route in Jerusalem. Eventually, these shrines became the set of 14 stations we now know and were placed in almost every Catholic Church in the world.

Could this be your Ministry?

Now in its thirty-third year Centacare's Catholic Psychiatric Pastoral Care (CPPC) trains pastoral carers to support people with mental illness, through their spiritual and therapeutic ministry in hospitals, supported accommodation and our day Centre.

CPPC is seeking Catholics with the ability to relate personally and spiritually to those suffering from mental illness.

The volunteer training course (provided cost free) runs each Wednesday 9:00am – 3.30pm, from 1 May to 20 November 2019. Upon graduating the Pastoral Carers give a voluntary commitment of 8 hours per week in either one of the above ministries.

Applications close Thursday 18 April 2019.

Written applications can be sent to:

Fr Jim Smith, 58 Morgan Street, Fortitude Valley QLD

Basic questions answered according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church.
Q. What did we learn from the temptations of Jesus in the desert?

The temptations of Jesus in the desert recapitulate the temptation of Adam in Paradise and the temptations of Israel in the desert. Satan tempts Jesus in regard to his obedience to the mission given him by the Father. Christ, the new Adam, resists and his victory proclaims that of his passion which is the supreme obedience of his filial love. The Church unites herself to this mystery in a special way in the liturgical season of Lent.

We can use your postage stamps from your mail

The Salesian Missions use the old stamps that are passed on to them to raise funds. This goes towards Salesian Education and relief work in developing nations. Yes, the Post man does not have to stop by often, but on that rare occasion he does, and on that envelope, if there is a stamp, can you please pass this on to us, instead of throwing it in the bin? A small gesture, lending a big helping hand. We have placed a collection box for stamps in the parish office.
