19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Wisdom 18:6-9; Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19; Luke 12:32-48

The End Is Near?

I was saddened a few years ago when a young person came to me upset. He was trying to live a Christian life, but he kept falling short. That worried him because some Christians had convinced him the world was ending soon. "I'm worried that Jesus won't take me with him," he said.

There's a lot of talk out there about the world's end. Some Christian books predict exactly how and when it will happen. Some people even use fear about the world's end and God's judgment to motivate people to follow Jesus.

Luke wrote this week's Gospel for early Christians who expected Jesus to return fairly soon. He urges Christians to be prepared, but he is also sceptical of people who claim to know when or how he's coming.

That's good advice for us. We don't know how the world will end. People who claim to find details about it in the Scriptures usually are misreading the Bible. We need to steer clear of people who use fear tactics to spread the Gospel. Our God motivates through love, not fear, always reminding us that we're loved despite our sins. So don't worry about whether the world might end before you're "good enough" in God's eyes.

It's our job to wait, not worry. We wait by praying and worshipping. We wait by doing our best and acknowledging our shortcomings. We wait by serving the poor. We wait by opening up to people we trust. When you wait in these days, you'll be surprised. Suddenly you'll realise God's grace and peace is with you – and the Master has arrived.

Can you remember a time when you were suddenly surprised because you felt like God was with you?

LUKE 12:35-53

35"Be dressed in readiness, and keep your lamps lit. 36"Be like men who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that they may immediately open the door to him when he comes and knocks. 37"Blessed are those slaves whom the master will find on the alert when he comes; truly I say to you, that he will gird himself to serve, and have them recline at the table, and will come up and wait on them. 38"Whether he comes in the second watch, or even in the third, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

39"But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 40"You too, be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not expect."

Bequests to St. Edwards Parish

The writing of a Will can be a very gratifying knowing that you have looked after your loved ones with your wishes. We would like to invite you to consider making a bequest in your Will to help your Parish with the needs for future projects. Any bequests no matter how big or small would be gratefully received and applied to the growth of our community. Thank you.

We can use your postage stamps from your mail

The Salesian Missions use the old stamps that are passed on to them to raise funds. These go towards Salesian Education and relief work in developing nations. Yes the Postman does not have to stop by often, but on that rare occasion he does and on that envelope, if there is a stamp, can you please pass this onto us? We have placed a collection box for stamps in the parish office. Thank you.

If you are new to the Parish or are visiting, Welcome!

We are glad you have come to share Eucharist with us today. Please leave your details with the parish office on 3299 2000 so that our Parish Priest and a member of our Parish Pastoral Council can reach out to you with a formal welcome. Thank you
