'Take nothing for the journey except a staff'
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year B

Let's pray this week that we show Jesus' message in our love for those we encounter each day.

This week's readings tell of people who receive a mission. It has always been God's plan from the beginning to choose ordinary people like us to help spread the Good News. Jesus asks us to listen, and really come to know him. All we need do is trust him, and we will be blessed with all we need to follow his way.

Amos, a shepherd, has simply listened and responded with courage and faith to God's call. He has spoken up for the poor of Bethel. Today, the royal priest tells Amos to mind his own business and leave. (First Reading) The Psalmist, too, listens to the Lord's 'voice ... of peace for his people'. He sings praise to God's promise of faithfulness, mercy, justice and help to all who trust in him.

Paul's letter to the Ephesians begins with a long prayer of praise and blessing to God. We have always been part of God's plan: 'Before the world was made, God chose us.' Through the gifts of Christ and our faith, we are God's loved and forgiven sons and daughters. (Second Reading) teaching others the message of love and repentance they have seen and learned from him. They are to carry nothing other than their staff, but to trust in God's love and rely on the hospitality of others. If they are not welcomed, they are not to make a scene, but simply 'shake off the dust from under their feet', then move on. Let's pray this week that we show Jesus' message in our love for those we encounter each day. We ask to be witnesses to the joy of our faith in the way in which we live our lives.

In the Gospel, Jesus sends out the apostles in pairs to support one another,

GOSPEL Mark 6: 1–6 REFLECTION

After becoming still and aware of the Lord's presence with me, I invite the Holy Spirit to guide me. I read this Gospel passage through several times. If helpful, I may like to use my imagination to place myself in the scene.

I watch Jesus gathering the disciples to him, and notice the reactions of others around him. Perhaps I imagine myself to be one of the Twelve and hear his words of encouragement. How do I feel being chosen and trusted to go out by Jesus, carrying virtually nothing with me? Excited, nervous, or ...? Do I feel ready? I reflect on my own life today ... where is Jesus sending me?

I listen to Jesus as he asks me to labour alongside him, entrusting myself to him just as I am. With a sense of gratitude, I may also like to ponder those who have journeyed with me along the way. Who, or what, has given me support?

Jesus sends the disciples out in pairs with just a staff to lean on. He doesn't want them to be held back by anything non-essential. What might it be that holds me back from travelling lightly? I share this with the Lord and ask for his help to let it go.

Jesus experienced opposition and rejection himself. Now he advises the Twelve how they might handle it. I ask Jesus to help me keep my focus on him, and not let any negative 'dust' cling to me and hinder me. I note how I am feeling now and share this with Jesus. I listen to what he might be saying to me. I end my prayer slowly with words of my choice, grateful for his infinite love and his trust in me.
