The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ—Year
A-1 (Corpus Christi)

'The bread we break is a communion with the body of Christ'

Today's feast is an opportunity to reflect on the wonderful mystery of the Eucharist: the sacrament that nourishes our faith and gives life to the world.

Each reading offers an opportunity to pray about the significance of this gift, reminding us of the richness of the Eucharistic tradition in the Church.

Moses recalls that though the people of God were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, God never abandoned them (First Reading). Instead, he encouraged them to have faith in his continuing living presence.

The Psalm suggests many reasons to praise God, including both the material and spiritual nourishment that God offers us. Paul reminds the factious Corinthians of the profound spiritual significance of taking the body and blood of Christ. By participating in the Eucharist, they are uniting themselves to Christ and to the whole Christian community. (Second Reading)

In the Gospel, Jesus affirms that he is the bread of life: the very life force of God. Through his life, death and resurrection, Christ nourishes our deepest hunger for God. We draw life from him even as Jesus drew life from the Father. This week, we pray for a deepening of Christian Unity. We ask that we may truly become one as followers of Christ.

GOSPEL

John 6: 51–58

REFLECTION

I take a few moments to become comfortable as I prepare for prayer, becoming aware of my breathing. I try to let go of my needs . . . of anything that preoccupies me. I ask God for the grace of an expectant, open heart, receptive to whatever he offers. When ready, I read Jesus's words, slowly and gently. There is no need to rush. If a particular phrase draws me, I linger with it, savouring the words.

Jesus speaks to me here about the great mystery of the Eucharist; how he gives of himself totally for the life of the whole world. I may imagine this Cosmic Christ animating all of creation, from the smallest elements to the vast universe. I ask God to help me wake up to this life-giving power.

Perhaps I find myself filled with awe and wonder, and allow that to nourish me. I pray to draw life from Christ as he drew life from the Father. I may speak to the Lord about what has arisen in my prayer, or I may simply sit in silence, basking in the love of the Trinity. I end with a slow blessing: of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

SVdP Winter Appeal

Your monetary contributions will help provide warm clothing, blankets, and essential supplies to protect them from the cold. Additionally, we gratefully accept donations of non-perishable food items like canned goods, rice, pasta, and dried fruits, which will nourish those in need. Thank you

Last weekend the Children's Liturgy children assisted Kath Layton launch our Vinnies winter appeal. The children took up the Offertory bringing their food offerings to the altar and placing them in a big basket. They felt special and proud to be involved in the Mass of the Holy Trinity and as Matthew's Gospel says:

*"Let the little children come to me,
and do not hinder them,
for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."*
