19th Sunday in Ordinary Time —Year A-1

A voice that speaks of peace

Almighty ever-living God, whom, taught by the Holy Spirit, we dare to call our Father, bring, we pray, to perfection in our hearts the spirit of adoption as your sons and daughters, that we may merit to enter into the inheritance which you have promised.

Our Sunday readings this week reiterate the need to listen to God's voice in all the circumstances of our lives, especially in times of trial. Thereby we might become artisans of peace in our world. In the First Reading, God appears to a despondent Elijah in the voice of a gentle breeze, and the prophet gains courage to face his mission. The Psalms could be Elijah's prayer: the psalmist is eager to hear what the Lord has to say.

The disciples are also disheartened (Gospel), and slow to recognize the Lord in the midst of the storm. They worship him as he reaches out to save them. St Paul, writing to the Romans, is saddened that the Jewish people have not recognized Jesus. He is willing to put his own salvation on the line to help his people. (Second Reading)

May we remind ourselves this week that Christ, our peace, is always with us, and with our world, amid the storms and difficulties of our lives.

GOSPEL Matthew 14: 22–33 REFLECTION

I come to my place of prayer and give thanks that I have this time, aware that I am following Jesus's example of spending time alone with God. I sit quietly, putting aside all other considerations, breathing in his love and goodness. I then read the text a few times.

Like Jesus, maybe I can see the disciples struggling in the heavy seas. Do I look on them with compassion, or am I in the boat with them, sharing their fear? What are my thoughts and feelings? The disciples think Jesus is a ghost. In what ways am I sometimes fearful when I think God has deserted me? Do I hesitate to call on his help? Why is that?

I may wish to ponder Peter's story. I can admire his boldness and identify with his sudden fear. Does it speak to me of an incident in my life? I share this with the Lord. I may wish to ask the Lord to strengthen my belief that he is with me, with my community, with the Church at all times. I end my prayer with a slow Glory be ...

Your gift today is a blessing to your local community

The face of the Church can seem ordinary enough, as can the face of each of us. But if we open the door of faith and allow God's mercy to flow through us into the lives of those in need, people will see in the Church and in each of us the face of Christ himself. May God, who is the giver of all gifts, bless you in every way.
