2nd Sunday of Lent — Year C/2

‘This is my Son the Chosen One. Listen to him’

‘Listen to him ...!’ Lent is a season of seeking out and listening to the Lord. Every year on this Second Sunday, we read an account of the Transfiguration: a transforming spiritual encounter linking Jesus to the fulfilment of the Law and the Prophets. Here we see a foretaste of the glory of the Risen Christ: a vision of how our lives are transformed by the presence of Christ within us.

The First Reading tells of a meeting between God and Abram. Through Abram’s faith, God makes an eternal covenant with the people of Israel. The Psalms is a song of longing and hope in the faith of the Lord: a call to prayer that encourages us to seek God’s light, guidance and strength. In the letter to the Philippians (Second Reading), we are entreated to be united in our faith. Christ will transfigure us.

In Luke’s Gospel account of the Transfiguration, Jesus takes his close companions with him to pray. Here Jesus is placed firmly in the context of the fulfilment of God’s Covenant to the people of Israel. There are echoes of the past, and glimpses of Jesus’s coming death in the weariness of the disciples praying with him. This short passage has a very clear message for us today: ‘Listen!’.

As we enter into prayer this week, let us remember we are never alone as we pray. As companions in Christ, we are part of an eternal community united by the light of Christ within us. Christ is our help and our stronghold: together let us answer the call and listen to him.

GOSPEL Luke 9: 28–36

REFLECTION

Having taken time to bring myself into the presence of the Lord, I slowly read through the Gospel. Jesus goes with his companions to a place of wilderness. It may help my prayer to imagine a familiar mountain or wild place where I have been, or where I have felt close to the presence of the Lord.

I envisage the Gospel scene unfolding in that place, imagining that I am one of the companions that Jesus takes with him to pray. I stay for a while, simply imagining being in the presence of our loving Jesus, sitting in stillness and silence. Why has he invited me to be with him in this time of prayer? What does Jesus want me to hear and see?

I Imagine the rest of the Gospel scene. What is my reaction to seeing the vision of Jesus suddenly transformed in the presence of Moses and Elijah? I hear the voice of God inviting me to listen to his Son. in silence I listen. Then, when I feel ready, together with Jesus I pray: Our Father ...

PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion
to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear,
that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

Anglican Archbishops Justin Welby and Stephen Cottrell

Mr Gerald Shegog—School APRE

This term our Virtual Assemblies and then this week our face-to-face school Assembly have been focussing on our school prayer and reflecting on its meaning line by line, one line each week. This week appropriately at the beginning of Lent our focus was on forgiveness, “Give us the strength to be able to forgive”. Thank you to 5 Blue who helped the whole school reflect on forgiveness and challenged us to be a forgiving community.
