20th Sunday in Ordinary Time —Year C/2

Prince of Peace?

Wow. Some Prince of Peace this guy was. Splitting up families, causing division. You sure you want in on this?

Jesus almost sounds sad in this Gospel passage. Maybe this story recalls one of the first times he realised people wouldn't accept his Good News. Maybe that reality crushed him.

I've seen that happen to a lot of young people after youth group meetings, retreats, or community service trips. They feel filled with Good News but run into friends and family members who call them unrealistic, naïve, or Bible-bashers. I've also seen conflict sparked when young people stand up for what's right, in front of friends or classmates.

Yeah, Jesus was right. Conflict is definitely part of the package. The peace Jesus brings isn't a calm in which no one gets angry. Jesus makes it clear he stands for the peace that can come only when all people find respect and justice. But the people who call others to respect all people and to live justly – hopefully, you and me – quite often spark conflict.

So the real question is: How will you deal with conflict as a Christian?

Here are some tips from a guy who has faced it, made some mistakes, and learned from them.

First, don't back down from it. Conflict can strengthen relationships if you deal with it non-violently. Every time you stand up non-violently for your beliefs despite conflict, your self-esteem grows.

Second, remember that our God is non-violent. Resolve conflict without name-calling, yelling, or becoming physically violent. That can be hard. But the more you practice, the better you get.

Third, you're not alone. Pray for strength to remain faithful, even during conflict, and reach out to other Christians – especially those who can walk with you – for support and advice when times get tough.

So, yeah, conflict is part of the deal for Christians. And it can get ugly. But the Lord had been through it and won't leave you in the lurch.

When have you seen Christian living spark conflict with friends and family?

Prayer for Clergy Convocation 2022

Have you considered praying for your Clergy? Deacons, Priests and Bishops?
Why not pray for them in the lead up to the 2022 Clergy Convocation from the 16th to the 17th of August at the Brisbane Convention Centre. Clergy Convocations are a positive time for Archdiocesan Clergy to come together and discuss matters of importance to the Church and enjoy fellowship and worship.

It's been a while but Archbishop Mark Coleridge resumed his official duties to bless the plough at the opening of Brisbane's famous Ekka.

The Catholic and Anglican Archbishops take turns each year in blessing the plough, drawn by two Clydesdales (named Pearl and Opal!).

This year, it was Archbishop Mark's turn again after an absence due to the COVID19 pandemic preventing the Ekka from occurring in 2020 and 2021.
He officiated at the Ekka opening last weekend.

Archbishop Mark said the ceremony was based on tradition, calling down God's blessings on all that farmers did and all of the animals and equipment that they worked with.

"It may seem a bit antiquated but it's a simple and effective way of remembering that everything is a gift - the land and all it produces," Archbishop Mark said.

Ekka organisers describe their event, which attracts about 400,000 people, as "bringing country and city together for a true celebration of agriculture".

Has anyone picked up a ring besides the sink inside the church back meeting room. It happened on Sunday, 31 July 2022. It was taken off to wash her hands and she removed her silver ring with a crystal stone. After drying her hands she forgot to pick-up her ring. She remembered when she arrived home. We checked the next morning and could not find it. If you have located it please call the office 3299 2000. Thank you.
