LET US GROW IN GOD'S GRACE
St Edward's Primary School

Our Year 5 students have completed a unit of work exploring and investigating Mary, Mother of Jesus, and her significance for them today. Their unit culminated in an Art Exhibition of their own art work expressing their understanding and significance of Mary. Their works of art were outstanding, with explanations of their art and the medium used as well as their own deep reflections. A great exhibition.

This Sunday marks both the last week of Ordinary Time and the penultimate Sunday of the liturgical year, as we prepare for the Feast of Christ, King of the Universe, next Sunday. Today's readings, like those of last week, continue to remind us that we need to be prepared for the end of time, an event which the authors of the New Testament thought was imminent. The First Reading from Proverbs suggests that we should embody all the qualities of 'the perfect wife' as seen through the eyes of the author. She is industrious and diligent, not just for her family but also for the poor and the needy. The Psalm also extols the virtues of family life and blesses those who fear – or are in awe of – the Lord.

In the Second Reading, St Paul tells us that the Day of the Lord will come when we least expect it, 'like a thief in the night'. We should remain wide awake in anticipation of the Lord's coming.

In the Gospel, the parable of the talents reminds us to use the gifts and talents we have for the benefit of others. Everyone has been given at least one talent, and it is our duty to use it in the service of society. This week, I might spend some time reflecting on how best I can use the talents I have been entrusted with, so that when the time comes, I can also be called a 'good and faithful servant'.

GOSPEL Matthew 25: 14–21

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third, one; each in proportion to their ability. Then he set out. 'The one who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The one who had received two made two more in the same way. But the servant who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid the master's money. 'Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The one who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more, saying. "Sir, you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made." The master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness.

REFLECTION

After coming to some inner quiet in the way that works best for me, I read the shortened version of this well-known parable several times. I may want to read the full version in my Missal or Bible at a later time. What strikes me as I read the text? Perhaps there's a phrase I haven't 'heard' before? I stay with it for a few moments. I may want to consider my own 'talents'. I notice that everyone has been given at least one talent. Can I name mine? What have I done with my talents? ... What do I do with them? ... What will I do? In what ways have others been affected as I use them? I ponder, and tell the Lord how I feel. I listen to the Lord calling me his good and faithful servant, giving me his trust, and inviting me to share in his happiness. How do I want to respond? With gratitude, disbelief, yearning ...? In time, I slowly conclude my prayer: Glory be to the Father...
