11th Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year A-1

‘We are his people, the sheep of his flock’

This week’s liturgy reminds us of who we are, whose we are, what has been done for us, and then, how we might feel drawn to respond.

For the people of Israel, relations with neighbouring tribes always offered tempting religious alternatives. The Exodus story (First Reading) was a constant reminder of their covenant with God, in which the whole nation was called to be made holy. St Paul writes to the Christians in Rome, teaching that their concerns should not, ultimately, be about what they are doing for God, but about what God has done, and is doing, for them. (Second Reading) That is also a sentiment echoed in this week’s Psalm – we, the sheep, are beneficiaries of a Good Shepherd who made us, who loves us, who is faithful to us, and to whom we belong.

St Matthew (Gospel) portrays Jesus as the compassionate shepherd of his suffering people. Jesus is concerned not only with their spiritual and practical needs, but also about ensuring there are enough ‘labourers’ on the ground to reach every ‘lost sheep’.

As I pray this week, I might ponder: are there tempting alternatives getting in the way of my own covenantal relationship with the Lord? What has God done for me . . . is God doing for me . . . will God do for me? How is my relationship with the Good Shepherd, to whom I belong? In what ways am I able to labour alongside Christ in today’s world?

GOSPEL Matthew 9: 36–10: 8 (part) REFLECTION

It is because Jesus feels his heart so moved by those he encounters that he enlists twelve disciples to enable him to respond, as he desires – first to the twelve tribes of Israel, and then to the whole world.

Having read the Gospel slowly, prayerfully, I take some moments to enter into stillness. Whether I feel ‘harassed’ or not at the moment, I pause to consider the heart of Jesus, moved towards me. I take a few deep breaths. Perhaps I can already begin to sense a desire in me to respond. I gently stay with whatever I am noticing.

Jesus’s compassion reaches the most inaccessible places where the flock has wandered. His desire is to show the Kingdom by revealing his Father’s tender heart, which freely gives to all. But this is not a kingdom free from suffering.

Like the chosen people in Exodus, and like the Good Shepherd himself, saying ‘yes’ to the Kingdom will not exempt me from the difficulties and struggles of life. How do I feel about this? Is there anything I want to say to the Good Shepherd? Jesus summons . . . gives authority . . . and then sends the disciples. Have there been occasions when I have felt a call from the Lord?

What have I freely received? Have I ever felt sent to a person, a place, a situation?

Maybe, even now, some situation requiring my labour is coming to mind? I hold that situation before the Lord, asking for the help of his authority. I sit quietly for a while before the Lord, whose heart is always moved towards me. When ready, I end: Glory be. . .

VALE - GEORGE MARCUS SHERIDAN GIBBS 05.11.1923 to 09.06.2023

Husband, Father, grandfather, great-grandfather, friend and dedicated Parishioner of St Edwards Community for over 40 years.
George was called home to eternal life on Friday 9 June after a brief illness. He and dear Frances had celebrated their 75th Wedding Anniversary in March this year. George was father to his 3 daughters; Mary, Colleen and Anne and his three sons; Michael, Peter Roderic and Martin who blessed him with his 12 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. He lived a short walk from the Church in Chatswood Road and kept a manicured property after retiring from his teaching Profession. He could be found at Aldi on Wednesday mornings at opening time!

He was a Communion Minister and also assisted in the Parish Office as a cash counter and a member of our SVdP. He is so fondly remembered by us all as a Gentle gentleman with a warm ready smile. George we missed you when you relocated to Villa Maria Care and we miss you now.

Rest in Peace. Our Deepest Sympathy, love and prayers to Frances and all the extended family.
