29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

'Give to God what belongs to God'

Today's readings concentrate on God as ruler over all the world. The First Reading teaches us about the relationship between God and Cyrus, one of the most powerful earthly rulers. Even though Cyrus did not know God, God works through him, giving Cyrus all that he needs to help accomplish God's plans.

The Psalm is a song full of praise for the Lord, who is 'above all gods', and who will judge fairly. The psalmist calls us to speak of the Lord's greatness and glory throughout the world, and to pay him worship and honour.

In the Second Reading, St Paul gives thanks to God and prays for the Christian community in Thessalonica. Chosen and loved by God, the community – aided by the power of the Holy Spirit, and strengthened by its faith and hope in God – continues in its work.

The Gospel message is that we belong completely to God and are therefore called to offer God our entire selves. Jesus is aware that the Pharisees and Herodians are trying to trip him up when they ask if Jewish people should pay taxes to the Romans. Although he confirms that this is reasonable, at the same time he also affirms that our first duty is to serve God, and to give God what is due.

This week, maybe we can pray for the rulers and leaders of our world, particularly during these difficult times, asking that God will work through them towards justice and peace. We ask too that the Holy Spirit will guide each of us in how we can serve God best.

GOSPEL Matthew 22: 15–21 REFLECTION

As I prepare for this part of my prayer, I may find it helpful to become aware of my breathing. As I breathe in, I take in God's love, and as I breathe out, I surrender any concerns or fears I may have to God. When ready, I read the Gospel passage slowly and carefully, letting the words soak in.

Perhaps I ponder the phrase 'give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God'. I think of the gifts I have been given, and how I am using them.

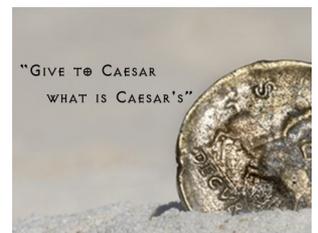

As I read it through a second time, I may find it helpful to imagine myself in the scene: perhaps as a Herodian ... or as a disciple of the Pharisees or of Jesus ... or just as myself. What do I see and hear? What do I notice about Jesus?

How he holds the coin ... the tone of his voice ... the expression on his face ... Do his eyes catch mine? How do I feel about that? Is he saying something to me? How am I responding?

Perhaps I want to tell Jesus of any worries, fears or pressures ... anything that might be holding me back from 'giving to God what belongs to God'. He is listening, though he already knows and understands.

I can tell him my deepest longings too, just as I would a dear friend. I ask Jesus to give me the grace he feels I need at this time, so that I can follow better the life that he desires for me.

As I slowly make the sign of the cross, I thank the Lord for the time I have just spent with him, as well as the gifts I have received.

One of the constant messages that the team at Catholic Mission receive from missionaries around the world is 'thank you'. The people that we support, with the generosity of our donors, know how blessed they are by the Church here in Australia. That same note of gratitude is heard in today's second reading, where Paul, Silvanus and Timothy all acknowledge the other members of the Thessalonian faith community in their prayers and give thanks for each of them. Missionaries that we support and uphold express similar gratefulness. When you contribute to the Catholic Mission appeal this weekend, you can be assured that you, your parish and others like it, will be remembered in prayer by those in places like Cambodia. Whether you give through a text message (Text the word GIVE to 0488 854 436, enter your parish name in the notes and follow the prompts), donate online (catholicmission.org.au/Cambodia) or give via the traditional appeal envelope, you are helping missionaries like Bishop Kike reach out and bring life to some of the most needy people in the world. On behalf of all of them, we, like Paul, give thanks.
