The readings in this final week of Ordinary Time Year A remind us again of the need to be always prepared for the coming of Christ by the way we live our lives. In the First Reading, the writer extols the virtues of the perfect wife. Although using language which reflects the practice and culture of biblical times, the passage speaks powerfully of the value and dignity of manual work, the importance of charity, and respect for all, whatever their role in life.

The Psalm speaks again of the dignity of work, of being self-sufficient, providing for one's family, and living in awe of the Lord. St Paul reminds us in the Second Reading that if we live our lives in the light of Christ, we have no need to fear the coming of the reign of God. In the Gospel, Jesus uses the parable of the talents to show the importance of making best use of what we have been given for the benefit of others.

This week, we might pray for those who struggle to realise where their own talents lie, and those who lack the opportunity to be recognised, valued and celebrated. We also continue to pray for peace across the world.

GOSPEL Matthew 25: 14-30 REFLECTION

I take a few moments to ponder how I am feeling as I come to pray. I ask the Lord to be with me in whatever way he knows I need today. Perhaps putting myself in the place of one of the servants, I read the passage through slowly a number of times, noticing how it feels as I look at what the master has given to me. What motivates me now? Ambition . . . confidence in my own ability . . . the desire to please . . . doubt . . . fear . . . or something else? I ponder.

I pause to consider the ways in which my own life has been enriched by the talents I have been given. How do I express my gratitude? Or do I sometimes take things for granted? What is it that I truly value? I may like to invite Jesus to come and sit by my side as I review what has been entrusted to me. I look back, without judgment, at the ways in which I have already made use of my talents.

I listen to what Jesus says to me about how I am using them now, and what I might do in the future. How does it feel to hear him call me 'Good and faithful servant'? In whatever way feels right, I offer my thanks to the Lord for this precious time in his presence.

Ministers required for Christmas and New Year

This week end we have the list of ministries required over the Christmas and New Year period. For our volunteers who are normally rostered on over the normal week end

Masses they have been given the opportunity to still attend their rostered commitment. However there are families going away over this period and then we have the positions vacant looking for volunteers to fill these positions. The lists for the Masses over the Christmas and New Year period are displayed on the table at the entrance of the Church. Please check these lists and if you are attending any of these Masses and can volunteer for any of the ministries we would gratefully appreciate it.

Volunteers Thank You Dinner

This year's 'Volunteers Thank You Dinner' will be held in our hospitality area on Friday 08th December 2023 @ 6:30pm. There is a list at the entrance of the Church for our volunteers to indicate their attendance, the number from their family attending and any dietary requirements. If this can be attended to ASAP as we require numbers for catering purposes.

Hospitality

Next week end we will be having the Birthdays and Wedding Anniversary blessings. We will also be celebrating the special month with hospitality after each of our Masses. If you would like to contribute towards this celebration we would be most grateful. Thank you.

Keep safe and Well. Fr Joseph

SVDP Christmas Appeal

"A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse and a branch shall grow out of his roots". Jesse was the father of David, Israel's greatest king. Jesus is descended from the line of David. He is the branch promised in the above quote from Isaiah.

The Daisy Hill Conference of St. Vincent de Paul is using the Jesse tree as its symbol for this Year's Christmas appeal, launched this weekend. Parishioners will be invited to select leaves from the Jesse tree on which are written suggestions for Christmas hamper fillers.

Envelopes on the pews are for those who wish to make cash donations. SVdP has, this year, had an increase in families needing help. Our emphasis is on bringing Christmas cheer to children facing an otherwise bleak future.
