19th—20th June 2021 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Christ is with us at every moment of our lives

This week's readings reveal a God with power. As God's creatures, the forces of nature listen to and obey the voice of their Creator. Though the storms of fear and doubt may have played more significant roles in our lives during this past year, God's love continues to speak to us with words of calm, as it did to Job (First Reading).

It is the love of Christ, not the storm, which 'overwhelms us' (Second Reading).

This love is shown in the Gospel, when Jesus 'rebukes the wind' and the wind and waves obey. He is revealing something about his divine nature. 'Who can this be?' the disciples are led to ask as they are filled with awe. Their question may also be seeking a faith response in us as well.

Let's begin to ponder our own responses with the help of these scripture passages. Although we may yet be experiencing storms blowing around and within us, let's listen for that strong, yet calm voice, which brings with it peace and security. We may want to pray that the voice of the psalmist may echo throughout our lives in the coming week: 'Give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures forever'.

GOSPEL Mark 4: 35–41 REFLECTION

Taking note of how I am feeling, I move gently into prayer. I pay attention to what I can hear around me – perhaps there is a gale blowing, or maybe all is calm. What can I 'hear' within myself? Do I feel unsettled, agitated? I ask for the Spirit's help and, perhaps, for the grace to trust or for the gift of faith.

I read this very familiar gospel slowly, two or three times. I stop wherever I feel drawn. What am I particularly noticing today? Are there any questions surfacing for me? Perhaps I am struggling with a particular storm in my life at the moment. Or is there something I am afraid of? I ponder...

Jesus questions the disciples' fear and their lack of faith. What might he be asking of me today? How does this make me feel? As I continue to pray, I ask: How might this gospel account apply to me? Do I feel that the Lord is asleep sometimes, and I need to wake him? Can I be honest with him?

In the calm following the storm, the disciples are filled with awe. This leads them to a question of their own: 'Who can this be?' Perhaps I ponder their question myself.

Can I recall times when struggles have led me to a greater realisation of God's presence? ... a deeper understanding of who the Lord is? I remain alongside the Lord, in the calm and the quiet, happy to be with him. When ready, I end with a sign of the cross. I remain in God's love for me and end my prayer slowly:

Our Father ...

For the Sacramental Team

Last Friday Year 6 students were hosts to our three government representatives: Councillor Lisa Bradley, Honourable Mick De Brenni, and Dr Jim Chalmers. Each of them was very generous with their time and reflections, sharing personal anecdotes as well as outlining the three levels of government and their responsibilities. There was time for some questions without notice and our Year 6 students were very insightful with their questions and our guests were generous with their responses.
