In the gospels there are plenty of times when Jesus is with people eating and drinking and today's gospel is no exception. As always, Jesus is concerned with people and their real needs. They are hungry, so he feeds them. He is gracious in his abundant giving. But he feeds them not only with food; he also feeds them at a much deeper level. He teaches them, he welcomes them and he heals them. He treats us the same way; when we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus welcomes us, he speaks to us and through his Body and Blood, we are nourished and we are healed.

The Eucharist is God's greatest gifts to us. But it is not our right and we cannot demand it. Pope Francis reminds us of this when he says, 'the Eucharist is not a prize for the perfect, but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak.' That's all of us and each of us!

Today, we are not only celebrating receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, we are called to remember that we are the Body of Christ, the Church. As St. Paul reminds us, 'Now Christ's body is yourselves, and each of you with a part to play in the whole.' (1 Cor. 12.27). Today reminds and challenges to realise that we are the living Church, the Body of Christ, whose head is Jesus himself. Through our communion with Jesus and each other we are called to be living stones making a spiritual house.

St. Augustine, the great church writer said, 'become what you receive.' If we celebrate the Eucharist with each other and receive the Body and Blood of Christ, then we are called to be the Body of Christ, the Church today. And we are asked to be a missionary church. At the end every celebration of the Eucharist we are sent out with this great prayer of mission, let us go now to love and serve the Lord. If we share in the gift of Jesus' Body and Blood, then we are also asked to share this with others when leave church. Today on this wonderful feast, may each of us be fed, nourished and healed through the Body and Blood of Christ.

Peter's Pence Collection 06th—07th July 2019

Be a Witness of Charity

"A little mercy makes the world less cold and more just."

—Pope Francis, Angelus, March 17, 2013

Angelus, March 17, 2013

On the week end 06—07 July, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Youth United – Reflect and Connect recap

Last Saturday afternoon (15 June 2019) we hosted a Youth United Retreat where we invited youth from all around the deanery (and beyond) to join us.

Despite being a stressful time of the term with exams and assignments due, we had great representation from St Edwards and St Matthews with around 30 youth taking part. The weather was on our side too – and we were grateful for the aircon in St Declan's!

We were well led by Fr Ray Sanchez in some revealing group activities illustrating how our self-esteem can be hurt by the world and how our true selves are perfectly made in God's image. Youth connected over some gourmet hot dogs, icebreaker games, handball, basketball and a photo booth. It seems that fun was had by all, youth bonded and reflected on important messages about self-esteem and our true selves,

Special Thanks to:

Eats and Beats support crew who helped on the day: Sio, Tony, Brian, Denise, Muriel, Ed, Ben and Malcolm J

Fr Ray Sanchez and his 2 students, Mike and Francis, for their inspiration.

Cheryl and for assisting us with admin, advertising and organisation.

Fr Marce for booking the very busy Fr Ray.

Fr Rodrigo for popping in to show support

A big thank you to our parish for their ongoing support

And all the youth leaders for their commitment and enthusiasm – Kat, Bella, Lina.

This week we are in solidarity with all those refugees who enrich our Australian community. We also pray for all those who continue to seek safe and secure citizenship. May we become the country we are called to be. We pray for all those displaced around the world especially those in our own community, may they be surrounded by the love of God and a supportive community.

VINNIES WINTER APPEAL
YOU CAN HELP END THE PAIN OF POVERTY

Right now, 1 in 4 Australians are feeling lonely each week and 1 in 8 people are living in poverty. St. Edwards Daisy Hill Conference will be launching the 2019 Winter appeal on the 8th of June 2019. The appeal will run for 3 weeks.

The St Vincent de Paul Society is asking the community to dig deep and donate to the 2019 Vinnies Winter Appeal. It is heart-breaking that the numbers we serve are increasing every year. We rely on the generosity of the community. Without your compassion and financial contribution, we would not be able to help men, women and children to remain warm and fed in a safe place.

What you can do to help

- Financial Donations - envelopes will be available in the church from the 8th of June.
 - Donate non-perishable food.
 - Join our Conference and be an active Conference member.
- Please donate to the 2019 Vinnies Winter Appeal and help us continue to rebuild lives.

For more information please contact Sandra Gauder on 0450 319 780.
