12th Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year A-1

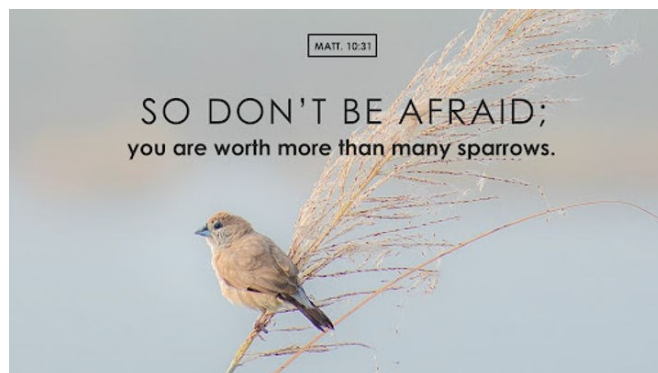

In your great love, answer me

Because we live in anxious, troubling times, where so many people around the world are suffering intolerably, today's readings can speak especially to us.

Jeremiah, in the First Reading, reflects on how his preaching has brought him suffering and isolation. Yet 'the Lord is at my side, a mighty hero.' The Psalmist cries out in anguish, but like Jeremiah, trusts that the Lord will answer with 'help that never fails.'

St Paul considers how sin and death hold sway in the world, but Christ has gained for us the abundant free gift of divine grace. (Second Reading) In the Gospel, Jesus twice tells his disciples, 'Do not be afraid'. Suffering will come their way, but the Father will always care tenderly for them.

Our lives, and those of our loved ones too, can be weighed down by fears, concerns or pain. May we strive this week to place our trust in the Lord, who is the 'strength of his people'.

GOSPEL Matthew 10: 26–33 REFLECTION

I take the time to become aware of God's presence, knowing that he loves me unconditionally. I ask his Spirit to help me pray. In time I take up the Gospel text and read it slowly.

These sayings of Jesus are words of encouragement to his disciples after he has warned them that they will be persecuted. As I ponder the text, where do I find encouragement? Which words of Jesus empower me and strengthen my resolve to follow him?

Jesus tells me not to be afraid: I have worth in his eyes. In what ways do I show that I truly believe this? I speak to him from my heart and listen to him. I think of those who feel that no one cares for them. I ask the Lord to bring them comfort and reassurance. Maybe God is asking me to respond in some way? I draw my prayer to a close with a Glory be. . .

The Good News

from the Archdiocese of Brisbane

This week I've celebrated my 21st anniversary as a bishop. I've said to well-wishers that I just wish I knew 21 years ago what I know now. Before he's made a bishop a man may think he knows all there is to know about episcopal life and ministry. But it's only once you're a bishop that you really learn the ropes. I look back now on my early years as a bishop and cringe at some of the things I said and did. But I like to think I've learnt from my mistakes and am wiser all these years later. Through the 21 years the episcopate itself has changed – in part because of the sex abuse crisis and the journey of the Royal Commission that it brought. But also because of what Pope Francis has brought to the Church, especially in the area of synodality. The Plenary Council in Australia has been a great part of my journey. So too the synods in Rome, past and to come. This has all meant a re-situating of the bishop's ministry, not in a way that undermines it but in a way that shows it for what it is meant to be. The bishop doesn't journey alone but at the heart of the People of God, listening to them as they listen to him, learning from them as they learn from him. On that score, even after 21 years, I still feel a beginner...

St Vincent de Paul Winter Appeal

"It's not how much we give, but how much love we put into giving." Mother Teresa

The members of the Daisy Hill Conference of SVdP would like to thank all those parishioners, as well as the students at St Eddies School, who so graciously responded to this year's winter appeal. We are overwhelmed by the volume of donations of cash, food, cosmetic items, blankets and other items.

Because of your outstanding generosity we have the means to reach out and support many who are homeless or in danger of becoming so, victims of domestic violence, the disabled and others facing hard times and needing a hand-up. On behalf of them – thank you!

We look forward to your on-going support through adding an item or two to your weekly grocery shopping list and dropping these items into the Vinnies box before weekend Masses.

Thank you.
