25th—26th April 2020

3rd Sunday of Easter

Did our hearts not burn within us?

Our readings this Sunday are full of the firm faith in the resurrection of Jesus, both in the teachings of St Peter and in the witness of the disciples in Emmaus.

The First Reading gives us the first part of Peter's rousing address to the crowd at Pentecost. Filled with the Spirit, he tells them about the life, death and resurrection of Jesus and how all of this was a result of God's plan.

He quotes Psalm 15 (16), our Responsorial Psalm, in which the resurrection of Jesus is fulfilled – you will not leave my soul among the dead.

The Second Reading, St Peter again, is a reminder that we have been ransomed by the blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ. Our faith and hope are based in the God who raised Jesus from the dead and gave him glory.

The Gospel gives us the moving story of the two disciples who meet the risen Jesus on the way to Emmaus. They only recognise him in 'the breaking of bread.'

Like the disciples, may we find the Lord this week in whatever difficult circumstances we experience.

GOSPEL

Luke 24: 13–35 Reflection

I come to my place of prayer and give time to entering gently into God's presence. I then read this long but beautiful text slowly.

Perhaps I can imagine the scene, and walk with the disciples.

I try to enter into their feelings which may be, or may have been, mine – feelings of being aimless, lost, downcast, discouraged, disappointed, grieving ...?

Jesus walks with them. How am I aware of this in my life? How have I been helped by him in the guise of a friend, a teacher...?

I join the disciples at table. I may give thanks for the gift of the Eucharist, for companionship, for receiving strength to return to my family, my community with a new heart.

School has returned for this term with some at school and some learning from home. Teachers have prepared an engaging learning opportunities for students and are being very creative and enthusiastic in their teaching. We keep the whole community, school and parish, in our prayers as we tackle this challenging time together.

ANZAC Day
Why we wear rosemary on Anzac Day.

Anzac biscuits and dawn services aren't the only tradition surrounding April 25. Have you ever wondered why rosemary is worn?

Rosemary has long featured in Anzac Day ceremonies, pinned to the lapels and collars of servicemen/women and school children alike. While it's unclear when rosemary was first worn, Anzac Day was first observed on 25 April 1916, and the aromatic herb has since become synonymous with the day.

The reason for wearing rosemary is the rosemary has a direct link with Gallipoli, where our troops fought in 1915—rosemary can be found growing wild all over the peninsula.

Cath Fulcer was thrilled with her card, flowers, cake and balloons she received from our Parishioners. She would like to say 'THANK YOU'.
