ON MONEY MATTERS

This weekend is the last of the series of James teachings. The Letter of James is a very practical book and tends to hit us right where we live. Some will hear the opening words of warning in chapter five directed to the rich. But the second reading today is not only addressed to millionaires but also to those who have enough but are blinded of what they have, or perhaps they have enough but are not contented of what they have.

Ronald Sider in his book, “Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger” writes, “Most Christians in the Northern Hemisphere simply do not believe Jesus’ teaching about the deadly danger of possessions. We all know that Jesus warned that possessions are highly dangerous -... But we do not believe Jesus. Christians in the United States live in the richest society in the history of the world surrounded by a billion hungry neighbours. Yet people in USA insist on more and more.”

So listen to what James says in today’s second reading (James 5:1-6), “Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you! Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have heaped up treasure in the last days. Indeed the wages of the labourers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord. You have lived on the earth in pleasure and luxury; you have fattened your hearts as in a day of slaughter. You have condemned, you have murdered the just; he does not resist you.”

James is writing to people he describes as rich, yet they probably did not have a standard of living higher than the majority of Americans today. The principles that James shares are important today. James says, in order to use money properly whether it is a little or a lot, you must take God into account. God is not nearly so concerned with what you do with the millions of dollars you do not have, as he is how you use the ten dollars you do have. Are you spending your money on the things that are really important to you? The answer is probably yes. But the real question we should be asking is; “Are you spending your money on the things that should be important to you?”

Plenary Council Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia
And guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another
And to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories
And to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other
And a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
That we may live the joy of the Gospel.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

Basic questions answered according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Q. In what way does a person exercise his or her proper right to worship God in truth and in freedom?

Every person has the right and the moral duty to seek the truth, especially in what concerns God and his Church. Once the truth is known, each person has the right and moral duty to embrace it, to guard it faithfully and to render God authentic worship. At the same time, the dignity of the human person requires that in religious matters no one may be forced to act against conscience nor be restrained, within the just limits of public order, from acting in conformity with conscience, privately or publicly, alone or in association with others.

Q. What does God prohibit by his command, "You shall not have other gods before me" (Exodus 20:2)?

The commandment forbids:

- Polytheism and idolatry, which divinizes creatures, power, money, or even demons.
- Superstition which is a departure from the worship due to the true God and which also expresses itself in various forms of divination, magic, sorcery and spiritism.
- Irreligion which is evidenced: in tempting God by word or deed; in sacrilege, which profanes sacred persons or sacred things, above all the Eucharist; and in simony, which involves the buying or selling of spiritual things.
- Atheism which rejects the existence of God, founded often on a false conception of human autonomy.
- Agnosticism which affirms that nothing can be known about God, and involves indifferentism and practical atheism.

Our parish will celebrate its annual patronal feast (St. Edward the Confessor) on Sunday, 14 October 2018 during the 8:30am Mass (commences 8.15am). We will also combine on this day our annual celebration of Mass of all Nations (Multicultural Mass). It is my passion to make this celebration more meaningful and colourful. I therefore encourage those who will be attending the celebration to please wear your national costume if possible. You may also cook and bring your national dish/food and share it with others because there will be brunch (breakfast and lunch) immediately after the liturgy.

If you would like to proudly carry your country's flag on the day please write you name on the list at the back of the Church.
Fr. Marce
