3rd Sunday of Easter — Year C/2

IT IS THE LORD!

In this Easter season, we see the strength of those who have witnessed the resurrection. Through them, we too witness the love of the risen Christ and power of his resurrection, even in times of terror and persecution.

In the First Reading we see the Apostles, despite the threat of persecution, bravely announcing that Jesus is risen. The Second Reading transports us to a vision of heaven. The author of the Apocalypse shares a vision where the whole of heaven and all of creation bows before the 'Lamb that was sacrificed'.

Our Gospel passage relates how the risen Christ shows himself to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and how he challenges Peter to affirm his love three times. The Psalm is a song of praise and thanksgiving that Christ himself and all his disciples sang.

Perhaps this week we, too, can praise the Lord for all the signs of resurrection around us, as we see the mystery of his Passion and resurrection in our world. We also continue to pray for peace across the world, and especially for the people of Ukraine and eastern Europe.

GOSPEL John 21: 1–19 (part) REFLECTION

I come to my place of prayer and relax into God's presence in the way I usually do. In time I read the text slowly. What strikes me when I consider the disciples or Peter? How do I identify with them? Do I stand back or do I move towards Jesus?

And what of Jesus's own actions and words? … His gentle suggestion, his calm normality, his thoughtfulness in cooking breakfast, his sharing in the meal ... How do these things make me feel? I speak to him of what is in my heart.

Later, I might read the remainder of the text, but for now I spend time in silence, or in thanksgiving for the resurrection, telling the Lord of my love. I end my prayer with a Glory be ...
