Christ obedient unto death

This week's readings call us to turn to the Lord, modelling our actions and words on Christ Jesus. The First Reading, from the prophet Ezekiel, gives hope. Those who think better of their situation and renounce it are given life. The Psalm reveals the heartfelt prayer of someone turning away from their sin and embracing the gift of new life.

The apostle Paul shows what it is to give up sin and take on the mind of Christ (Second Reading). The Church at Philippi was on the whole a source of joy for Paul, but here he appeals for greater unity. This is reached only by imitating the humility of Christ, who became obedient even unto death. Out of love for us, Christ even gives up his divinity, freely and without reservation.

Amidst growing tension following the overturning of the money changers' tables in the Temple, the religious leaders confront Jesus, demanding to know the source of his authority. Jesus tells the parable of the two sons, and poses a question, causing the chief priests to reflect on the difference between putting self or others first. By answering correctly, thereby aligning themselves to the boy who said he would do his Father's will but then doesn't, they convict themselves (Gospel).

This week, let us keep close to Christ, who obeyed the Father perfectly in word and deed. And let us remember that it is never too late for us to turn to God and follow God's will.

GOSPEL Matthew 21: 28–32 REFLECTION

I take some slow, deep breaths and try to become still. In time, I turn to the text. I imagine Jesus standing before me, and hear him ask me the same question he asks the priests: 'What is your opinion?'. He is looking to me for an answer.

How do I feel about his question . . . about Jesus looking at me now? How am I returning his gaze? Then, how do I answer? I think over my life this past week. What are the actions speaking louder than words? Do I tend to pledge my discipleship in words only? What is my attitude to apparent outsiders to the Kingdom?

How often do I pray for change of heart within me, opening me to a greater trust, a greater generosity? Finally, I ponder Jesus himself. How do I see him as the obedient Son who was faithful to the Father, whatever the cost to himself?

His obedience is out of love for me. I reflect on this, keeping my gaze on him. Then, what would I like to say to him? I take my time with this. When I am ready, I end my prayer with words of gratitude. Glory be to the Father . . .

Did You Know?

St Edward the Confessor

Edward's reign was a peaceful one characterized by his good rule and remission of odious taxes, but also by the struggle, partly caused by his natural inclination to favour the Normans, between Godwin and his Saxon supporters and the Norman barons, including Robert of Jumieges, whom Edward had brought with him when he returned to England and whom he named Archbishop of Canterbury in 1051.

In the same year, Edward banished Godwin, who took refuge in Flanders but returned the following year with a fleet ready to lead a rebellion.
