THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (Year B)

7th and 8th February 2015

DO WHAT JESUS DID

by: Fr. Marce Singon

The Day the Bubble Burst is a movie which focuses on the day when the Stock market crashed in 1929 and the banks closed. That day ushered in the depression Era of lost fortunes, unemployment and soup lines. But it was not only an era of economic depression. It was also an era of human despair. Thousands of people committed suicide or went insane when they lost all their savings and had no other resources on which to depend.

In our first reading in this weekend's liturgy (from the Book of Job), Job too lost all his wealth, property and even his family. He too knew the feelings of misery, hopelessness and depression. That is why in today's first reading Job describes his days as drudgery and his nights as dragging on, and he envisions his life as ending soon without hope.

But it isn't only people of the Great Depression in 1929 who experienced what Job felt. We see people all around us today who are discouraged because they can't find work; helpless because their disability benefits are drastically reduced; frustrated because their food stamps run out; hopeless because their welfare assistance does not match their cost of living.

If we're comfortable, healthy and secure, it is difficult for us to identify ourselves with Job or to understand people who suffer like him. Nonetheless, we cannot ignore the depths of human misery that surround us or pretend not to see the poverty of two-thirds of the world's population. How can we be involved alleviate the misery of today's many Jobs? In today's Gospel, Jesus shows us his personal involvement with those who suffer. He helped Peter's ill mother-in-law. He cured people who were brought to him. He went and preached the good news of hope to the poor.

What Jesus did must be the keynote of our ministry to the Jobs of today. Sometimes we can help people cope with their difficulties by words of gestures of encouragement. At other times we can help people through their pain by just being present and sympathetic. Whatever we have to say or do to minister to someone who is hurting should be of supreme importance to us. Such a person may know a day when his bubble burst because he lost his job, his health or a loved one. But he should never know a day or a night without a friend, because he should always be able to depend on our being there the way Jesus would be present to touch, to heal, to listen, to love!

Vocation View

The afflicted Job in the Old Testament thinks that his life is like dust in the wind; his restlessness depicting the sorrow and sadness afflicting society today.
Are we prepared for the task ahead?

To heal the broken-hearted, to bind up all their wounds?
How do you choose to respond?

LENTEN SEASON

Lenten Season will kick off on Ash Wednesday, 18th February, this is a day of FASTING and ABSTINENCE.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY LITURGY

Dear Parents,
Children's liturgy will commence during our 8.30am Mass this Sunday 8th February. Children progress from the church at the beginning of Mass and return to Mass at the Lord's Prayer in time for the reception of Communion. Children between the ages of 3 and 12 years are invited to attend children's liturgy where they join either the younger or older group. The liturgy is based on the gospel of the day so that the children hear the gospel message at their own level. We would very much like to have some new volunteers to help with the children.

Thank you The Children's Liturgy Team

Commentary for the Readings in the Extraordinary Form: Sexagesima Sunday

"The sower went out to sow his seed . . .
Now . . . the seed is the word of God" (Gospel).

Every springtime God, as it were, rewrites the Book of Genesis and Creation. Appropriate to the coming spring, Jesus is now pictured as the Divine "Sower." He sows "seed" in the soil of our souls, covered with "rocks" of hardening pride, "thorns" of softening "pleasures!"

The Epistle is a vivid picture, moving in quick action over Europe and Asia, but above all moving our souls to action as it describes the sacrifices of Paul, the "sower," sowing the "word of God," despite passions from within, persecutions from without.

News from St Edward's School

In this school year at St Edward's we have a confirmed full time enrolment of 524 students.

This is a very positive number considering we no longer have Year 7 within our school and the breakdown is as follows:

Prep....78; Year 1...78; Year 2...77; Year 3...77; Year 4...69...
Year 5...80 and Year 6...64 students.

On Thursday evening all teachers welcomed the parents into their classrooms for an 'Information Evening' to meet and share important information regarding the year ahead. I'm sure that the students, especially in Year 4-6, will be tired by the end of the week after our successful annual swimming carnival held at John Paul College on Wednesday!

SVDP News.....

This week we held our monthly meeting and was thrilled to see some of our parishioners attend to gain more information on becoming members.

We also invited a special guest from VoRTCS. This is another division of SVDP who runs a program that provides free in-home tutoring for refugee families. The volunteer tutors visit their designated families in small groups once a week, usually for periods of one to three years. They help family members with their English, their knowledge about how our community works, and they work on developing independence in key functional areas.

I announced at the meeting that I would be standing down as President of the SVDP Daisy Hill Conference due to health. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Fr Marce for his continued support, the committee who work so tirelessly for the families in our community, Penny (Parish Secretary) for her assistance and the St Edwards community for always willing to help us so we can carry out our mission.

Thank you.

Cheryl McCaffery, SVDP Daisy Hill Conference
